

Several Academy Days Co-op students cheer over the 187 canned goods they have recently donated to Millbrook's Welcome Inc., a food bank which serves West Elmore County families in need.

Pictured are Shelby Carter of Montgomery, Levi Baughcum of Deatsville, Joseph Manning of Prattville, Isabelle Baughcum of Deatsville; Kyler Abrams of Millbrook, Tamara Phillips of Millbrook, and Windsor Joye of Deatsville.

The homeschoolers represent 50 families in the tri-county area who participate in the homeschool co-op held at Coosada Baptist Church during the school year.

Academy Days Co-op offers preschool through high school classes in subjects such as science labs, photography, criminology, history, creative writing and P.E. Visit www.AcademyDays.com for more information about the co-op.
